Cadiz, Aug. 31. N. S.

THere are at preſent ſix French Men of War in this Port, under the Command of Monſieur de Relingue, ſeveral of which are careening above Puntal Caſtle. The Ship which the Spaniards have lately bought of the French, is fitting out with two or three more, being deſigned to carry a Supply of Men, Arms, Proviſions and Ammunition, to Carthagena in the Weſt-Indies, and they will be ſent away as ſoon as they are ready

Madrid, Sept. 10. The King of Spain is perfectly recovered of his late Illneſs, and is at preſent in better Health than he has been for a long time. 'Tis ſaid, the Court will remove on the 20th Inſtant to the Eſcurial, to paſs ſome time there. The Counteſs of Berlips, one of the Ladies of the Queens Bed-Chamber, has deſired and obtained Leave to return to Germany; and it's ſaid, the Queens German Phyſician, and a German Frier her Confeſſor, deſign to do the like in a ſhort time. The Price of Bread in this Place is much encreaſed within theſe 3 or 4 days. The Duke of Uſeda is appointed to go with the Character of Ambaſſador from this Crown to the Court of Rome. The Duke of Montelcon is made Maſter of the Horſe to the Queen. The Biſhoprick of Pampeluna is given to Don Juan de Arnedo, and the Biſhoprick of Honduras in the Weſt-Indies to Don Angelo Maldonado. The Almirante of Caſtile does not yet make uſe of the Leave the King has given him to return to Court.

Rome, Sept. 4. The Congregation appointed to examine the Propoſals made by the Heer Meyer, a Hollander, for draining a Moraſs near this City called the Paludi Pontine, have made their Report, and repreſented to the Pope, That the effecting the ſame will be of great Advantage to this City; upon which the Pope has ordered, that this Work be forthwith begun, and that a Sum of Money be given the Sieur Meyer in hand for this purpoſe. A Congregation of State was held this week touching the Affairs of Poland, in which Letters were read from ſome of the Biſhops in that Kingdom, who deſire to know, whether in caſe the Queen of Poland perſiſts in the Profeſſion of the Proteſtant Religion, they may perform the Ceremony of her Coronation; 'Tis not yet ſaid what Reſolutions are taken thereupon. The Reſident of Savoy has returned Thanks to the Pope for the Bull he has granted to the Duke of Savoy, empowering him to nominate to all the vacant Biſhopricks and Abbeys in his Dominions, except thoſe in Monſerrat. The Differences between the Emperor and this Court, concerning the Imperial Fiefs in Italy, do ſtill continue, and the Pope has not yet admitted the Emperor's Ambaſſador to Audience, notwithſtanding the Endeavours that are uſed by the Crown of Spain, the Republick of Venice, and ſeveral Princes of Italy, to accommodate this Matter. Great Preparations are making for the Jubilee, which draws a very great number of Strangers hither from all Parts of Europe. The Pope went this week to ſee the new Works at Port Anzo, which are now finiſhed.

Venice, Septemb. 11. The Senate are frequently aſſembled, to conſider of the Differences between the Emperor and this Republick touching the Limits between their reſpective Dominions in Dalmatia, which are not yet adjuſted; And ſeveral Expreſſes have been ſent to the Venetian Ambaſſador at Vienna with freſh Inſtructions touching this Matter. Deputies are arrived here from the Cities of Verona and Vicenza, to complain to the Senate that they are Taxed at too high a rate towards the repairing and maintaining the Banks of the River Adige. The Senate elected laſt week Sign^r Marco Loredano to be Captain of the Galeaſſes belonging to this State; Signior Almoro Piſani, to be one of the Sages of Terra-firma in the room of Signior Soranzo, who has reſigned that Employment on the account of his Embaſſy to the Port; And Signior Bartolo Gradenigo, to be Podeſta or Governor of Verona in the room of Signior Gradenigo his Brother, newly made Coadjutor to the Patriarch of Aquilea. The German Regiments which lately arrived here from the Levant, are obliged to perform a Quarantain, after which they will march to Germany. Our laſt Letters from Dalmatia give an Account, that Signior Mocenigo, General of the Venetian Forces in that Province, continues at Sebenico, and had given Orders to the Officers under his Command forthwith to recruit their Regiments. They write from Andrinople, that the Grand Signior left that Place on the 25th of July laſt, in order to remove to Conſtantinople. The Gabriel Merchant-Ship, Capt. Hall Commander, arrived here this week from London.

Bruſſels, Sept. 22. The Burghers of this City met laſt week to conſider of the Supplies demanded of them, and have granted a continuation of the Exciſe on Beer. They have delivered a Paper to the Burgomaſter of this Place, containing ſeveral Demands, and particularly that a Hall may be built for the Service of the Woollen Manufactury; That a Repreſentation be made in the name of this City to the Elector of Bavaria for raiſing the Coin to the value it went at during the War; That the Prohibition of tranſporting Corn in the Spaniſh Netherlands from one Town to another, may be taken off; And that the Protections granted to ſeveral Perſons, who were rendred unable to pay their Debts, by the Loſſes they ſuffered by the Bombarding of this Place by the French during the late War, be made void. The Elector of Bavaria has been ill of a Fever theſe 4 days, but is now on the mending hand.

Paris, Sept. 26. N. S. The Abbot Ruzzini, Envoy Extraordinary from Modena, had Audience on the 18th Inſtant of the King at Fontainbleau, to whom he delivered a Letter notifying the Death of the Dutcheſs-Dowager, Mother to the preſent Duke of Modena; The Envoy had Audience likewiſe on this occaſion of the Dauphin, the three Princes of France, the Dutcheſs of Burgundy, the Duke and Dutcheſs of Orleans, and the Duke and Dutcheſs of Chartres. The Provoſt and Eſchevins of this City went laſt week to Fontainbleau, to
